

Early Renewal is Here!

A promotional graphic for early renewal. On the left, a dark teal background contains a pink arrow-shaped box pointing right with the text "Renew Early!". Below it, a pink rounded rectangle contains the text: "Girls who renew between April 1 - May 1 are eligible for this free limited edition t-shirt!". On the right, two light pink t-shirts are displayed against a teal background with white polka dots. The top t-shirt features a green trefoil logo, and the bottom t-shirt has the text "IN MY GIRL SCOUT ERA" in a stylized, blocky font.

Don't miss out on another year in your Girl Scout era! Girls who renew by May 1 will receive this free, limited edition t-shirt.

Girls who have $40 or more in Program Credits can use them to renew. To do so, email us at info@gskh.org and say "Renew [GIRL NAME] with Program Credits."

You can also renew your girl by logging in to MyGS and paying with card or using financial aid. If financial aid is selected, you must fill out this form.

Once you have renewed your girl, go to UltraCamp to select her t-shirt size. Shirt sizes must be entered by May 1 for her to receive the t-shirt.

If you need any help or have any questions, contact us at (888) 686-6468 or email info@gskh.org.

Start Your Summer Planning Now! Earn Your Highest Awards.

Girl Scouts that are Juniors and older can work on earning a Highest Award. Juniors can earn the Bronze Award, Cadettes can earn the Silver Award and Seniors and Ambassadors can earn the Gold Award.

Learn more below about how to earn the Highest Award for your Girl Scout level.

Bronze Award

You can become a Bronze Award Girl Scout if you are in fourth or fifth grade, are a registered Girl Scout Junior and have completed a Junior Journey.

To earn the Bronze Award, start by building your team! This is a group of friends, family or community members that can help you with your project. Next, explore your community and decide on a project. Then, you'll make a plan of action and put your plan in motion!

Get the Bronze Award guidelines here >>

Silver Award

You can become a Silver Award Girl Scout if you are in sixth, seventh or eighth grade, are a registered Girl Scout Cadette and have completed a Cadette Journey.

To earn the Silver Award, email us at info@gskh.org to let us know you are ready to earn it. Next, find an issue you care about and explore your community to see how that issue affects your area. Be sure to choose a project that can lead to lasting change. After that, you will develop your project, make a plan and put it into motion!

Get the Silver Award guidelines here >>

Gold Award

You can become a Gold Award Girl Scout if you are in ninth, tenth, eleventh or twelfth grade, are a registered Senior or Ambassador and have completed two Senior or Ambassador Journeys, or have earned the Girl Scout Silver Award and completed one Senior or Ambassador Journey.

To earn the Gold Award, email us at info@gskh.org to let us know you are ready to earn it. Next, complete the online training and start your Gold Award application . Find an issue you care about and learn everything you can about that issue through research and trusted sources. Then, you'll form a team by identifying experts and people in your community who could help you. Think about the root cause of the issue and make a plan of how to tackle it. Submit your project proposal for approval. Once approved, lead your team and carry out your plan!
