

Fall Opportunity Sale

It's time to speak up and lead the way!

Participating in the Fall Opportunity Sale program can lead girls to a new found confidence and independence that comes from planning an exciting year, financing it, and watching it come to life. From teamwork to goal setting, money management to communication, the Fall sale applies practical life skills while providing a great opportunity for your troop to put some funds in the troop treasury at the beginning of a new Girl Scout year. So let's go "nuts" together finding new ways for encouraging girls to find their own voice, make a difference in their communities and go beyond what they imagined was possible. Attend one of the trainings listed to be eligible to participate, receive materials, gain online access and pave the way to a Girl Scout year full of activities, community service, travel and adventure.
